LPKF Laser & Electronics Hires New COO

Tualatin, OR, December 2012 — LPKF Laser & Electronics has announced the appointment of a new COO, Dr. Christian Bieniek. As the fourth member of the LPKF Board of Managing Directors, Dr. Bieniek will oversee the operational performance of the company, including all management, control, and organizational processes.

Throughout a long career in the logistics, management, and operations fields, Dr. Bieniek established himself as a uniquely qualified candidate for the COO position. An engineer who also holds a PhD, Dr. Bieniek most recently served as head of operations at MAN. There he gained comprehensive corporate experience in the capital goods industry.

A native of Lower Saxony, the German state that is home to LPKF worldwide headquarters, Dr. Bieniek looks forward to returning home and representing the ever-growing LPKF Group.
